

Glenn Braithwaite

Glenn Braithwaite is a theatre director, art educator and actor with some 30 years' experience. He has worked professionally in Tasmania and Melbourne as well as internationally. He has a special interest in LGBTQI stories as well as musical theatre. He has specialised in 20th Century American playwrights, improvisation, contemporary Australian theatre, theatre history, acting techniques, choreography, devising works and theatrical design work. He graduated from the Victorian College of the Arts in 1993. Glenn's most recent production was Ruthless the Musical! performed in Canberra. His most recent work has been with Perform Australia in Canberra as a director and tutor in acting and staging techniques. After 6 years in Canberra, Glenn has now relocated to Sydney and looking forward to future collaborations and challenges within the vibrant Sydney arts community.